NAME: _____

Hello, my name is Anna. I am from London. I moved to Venice, Italy, when I was four. It isn't a capital city, but it is very beautiful and it is smaller than the capital, so it is not so noisy. Here there are lots of museums and cafés, but there aren't any sports centres. There are lots of bridges too. My favourite place in the city is the Rialto Bridge, but don't usually go there. Here, people travel by gondola and water-taxi. It is very different from London where people travel by taxi. During the week I go to an international school because I can speak two languages. In the weekends I play football and I like going to the park or watching a movie in the cinema. My sister doesn't like this. She prefers going for a walk and we sometimes go together. My favourite hobby is to read books in my free time. I have got three hundred and fifteen books at home. I like Reading them after having dinner.
